FAMILY MAN

STRONG LEADER

GENERAL MANAGER OF WVEV FOR 25 YEARS

TENDER GRANDFATHER

COMPASSIONATE

LOVING FATHER

HE COULD PLAY ANY INSTRUMENT

Just weeks ago we tearfully, but temporarily, bid farewell to Barry Holt, who is now free from a relentless struggle with cancer and rejoicing in the arms of Jesus. To the WVEV family, Barry was a strong visionary leader in good times and bad for over 25 years, and we honor him for his love and leadership, and look forward to the day we will see him again, along side Jesus shouting the eternal Victory.

In 1959 at the age of 10 during a grammar school tour of WKEU Radio in Griffin Georgia, his destiny was set, and radio became all he was interested in. In 1965 his first words were spoken on the air as he read the obituaries for a local funeral home. By 1972 he had the opportunity to manage his first station. In 1981 WVEV began sending out a test tone on the 91.5 frequency. No one paid much attention to it, except Barry who realized that a new station was coming on the air and the signal was nearby. Like the light from a lighthouse guiding a lost ship to safety, it drew him like a beacon.

The young station broadcast a barely noticeable 250 watts power at that time, but Barry would help guide the process of acquiring a new tower, transmitter and gaining a power increase to introduce Contemporary Christian music to Metro Atlanta and North Georgia at our current strong level. Later, as General Manager, Barry would designate WVEV as a Lighthouse "Shining the Light of Jesus." For the last 25 years, Barry helped navigate the journey of WVEV to a broadcast ministry and internet outreach that has touched hundreds of thousands of souls for Jesus Christ. Our journey has only just begun, but one thing is certain, our future will be built upon the strong foundation that God built using Barry as His able tool.

Barry was an Ordained Minister, a Certified Radio Marketing Consultant, with a Degree in Business Administration. Barry and his wife Patsy lived in Jasper and have two children, Jamey and Melody, and two beautiful grandchildren, Taylor and Bailey.
